Samuel Flynn, Co-founder and CEO Hands In

"Group payments can be a challenge for travelers, with 72% experiencing difficulties according to Booking.com. Worldpay found that 73% of travelers prefer to use a payment platform that allows them to split costs. By including group payments in travel arrangements, travel companies can simplify the process and make group travel more attractive. Hands In provides a hassle-free solution for group payments, allowing travelers to easily split costs. With Hands In, travel companies can enhance the group travel experience while providing a valuable service to customers."
